SUBJECT: HIROSHIMA MAYOR ON IWAKUNI CASE: QDOOR OPEN TO USFJ PERSONNEL

1. (SBU) Summary: Hiroshima Mayor Tadatoshi Akiba telephoned Consul General on December 5 to discuss the October 14 incident involving Marine Corps Air Station (MCAS) Iwakuni personnel and a woman in nearby Hiroshima City, now that the criminal investigation has been dropped by Japanese prosecutors. He added a half-apology for his strongly-worded letter to the Ambassador over the incident. Akiba also reiterated his city's openness toward Americans, including military personnel from Iwakuni. The mayor asked that the USG keep him abreast of developments in the military justice system's case against the defendants. End Summary.

2. (SBU) CG Russel attempted to contact Mayor Akiba on October 19 after news of the October 14 alleged sexual assault involving four MCAS Iwakuni personnel and a 19-year old woman in Naka-ku, Hiroshima surfaced in the Japanese media. CG sought to convey to the mayor the seriousness with which the USG was viewing this incident, that the U.S. holds its military personnel to the highest disciplinary standards, and that we would cooperate with Japanese authorities to determine the bona fides of the case. Akiba was out of the country and upon his return to Japan, his staff cited illness as a reason the mayor could not be reached.

3. (SBU) On October 22, Akiba sent Ambassador Schieffer a strongly-worded letter demanding information about the case, care for the alleged victim, and a review of USFJ military discipline and the U.S.-Japan Status of Forces Agreement (SOFA).

4. (SBU) On November 6, Hiroshima Police ended their investigation of the four defendants and declined to press charges, releasing them to the U.S. military justice system. On December 5, Akiba telephoned CG to acknowledge that there had been no backlash against the U.S. military in Hiroshima over the case, and that public concerns about safety in Naka-ku had been allayed -- as close to an apology for his letter as we can expect. He assured CG that Americans -- including the Marines in Iwakuni -- were still welcome in his city.

15. (SBU) Accepting his invitation for Americans to continue to enjoy Hiroshima's hospitality, the CG also emphasized that the USG and USFJ were committed to maintaining the highest standards of discipline and that the case was still under careful consideration by the U.S. military authorities. Mayor Akiba asked to be appraised of any significant developments in their case.
